

The radar chart displays the relative importance of six variables for four groups. The variables are Territorial Control, Violence, Economic Extraction, Political Influence, Security, and Social Control. The groups are represented by four colored lines: dark blue, orange, light green, and dark red. The chart shows that the dark blue group values Territorial Control and Social Control highly, while the light green group values Political Influence and Economic Extraction highly.

Variable	Dark Blue Group	Orange Group	Light Green Group	Dark Red Group
Territorial Control	0.75	0.75	0.75	0.75
Violence	0.25	0.25	0.25	0.25
Economic Extraction	0.25	0.25	0.75	0.25
Political Influence	0.25	0.25	0.75	0.25
Security	0.25	0.25	0.25	0.25
Social Control	0.75	0.25	0.25	0.25

- Army
- FederalPolice
- MunicipalPolice
- StatePolice
- NationalGuard